Letter of reference for Ishan Gadhiya

To Whom It May Concern:

Ishan worked at World Simplified between 03.01.2023 to 02.06.2023 as a Product Owner intern.

On a personal level, he's open-minded and well-spoken, both qualities that have served him well in his role as an Intern here.

Ishan helped us with the following tasks:

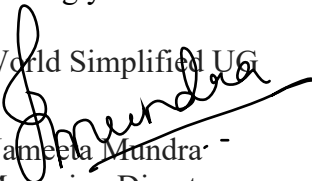

- Improved change management processes by creating better documentation processes and streamlining workflows
- Transformed requirements and business objectives into actionable deliverables with prioritization
- Collaborated with IT, design, and business leads to facilitate the development of new products
- Define the necessary steps to implement Agile methodologies in the company
- Create and manage the structure required to support Agile methodologies
- Managed the roadmap, and sprint backlog, and played a crucial role in sprint planning and reviews
- Worked on developing a new product concept, conducted a competitor analysis, refined the structure, flow, and functionalities, validated feature requirements and details, and built the feature roadmap and user stories for the Inventory feature
- Checked and tracked the testing and resolution of bugs during the release of the feature in the testing environment
- Conducted workshops for cross-functional teams, educating them on company and product knowledge while introducing new themes and best practices

Ishan's strong interpersonal and communication skills have allowed him to develop trust-based relationships and establish good working relationships with the management team and colleagues. His passion for exploring new opportunities was demonstrated in his ability to see through his projects successfully.

As a highly committed and results-driven professional, Ishan seamlessly fit into our international team and was able to slide into collaborating with different departments and help them reach their goals.

Ishan is a very business-driven, self-confident, innovative, and intelligent individual, and I know he will continue to find success.

I strongly recommend Ishan for any business in this industry.
